Winter Hunting at Double Boar

The snow has made for some spectacular hunts . The Eurasian Wild Boar have thick winter coats, so it's no wonder that this is our busiest time of year. Enjoy these fantastic photos.....

Warren Woogen poses for a great photo with his boar. He wrote, "I want to tell you how pleased I was with your willingness to work with me & my 357 Magnum Handgun. The experience was above my expectations."

Paul (on right) from Pittsburgh, took this beauty on a gorgeous sunny day at DBR. His friend Walt joins in to congratulate him.

Dan's second boar, a beautiful blonde San Diego. He had so much fun last year he made another trip from Delaware to hunt and stay at DBR again.

Mason and his wife Brenda, from N.C. show off their Black Hawaiian Ram. Mason also took home a super San Diego Boar.

Ben Park of Brookville, Pa. and his heavy, #270 live weight Bzikot Boar.

Marty joins in to congratulate his son Riley on his successful first ever boar hunt. Well done!

Guide Dana (left) with Chuck Bond after a successful days outing. What a set of tusks! Chuck said, "The animal I just took was absolutely beautiful and exactly what I wanted. I'm getting a full body mount! DBR was Wonderful!"

Chuck and his wife Jan visited Northern Namibia for 10 days in August 2009.

“We harvested Oryx, (pictured here), Springbuck, Mountain Zebra and Warthog. All of the meat was eaten in camp, and shared with the local village. We visited with the “Himba” people who lived close by and they were wonderful! Our trophies are safely home with us in Michigan.

In August of 2011, Double Boar Ranch staff and hunter clients are planning a caribou hunt/bear hunt/fishing trip. We have five people going thus far. DBR staff will be getting info at the spring shows this year and negotiate the best deal. We are hoping to get 8 - 16 people to go. For additional info call Andy at Double Boar, Telephone# 814-319-2064.
